occurred unless otherwise stipulated" and then it goes on to say that if it occurred outside the state of Nebraska, it would be in Lancaster county, which is similar to what we have now and that whole amendment deals with reinserting the reference back to the district court and even strikes the language, "in the absence of fraud" and puts it back to, "having the same force and effect as a jury verdict in a civil case.", as we now have. That part of it, I think we have just done it. I think your amendment is totally unnecessary.

SENATOR KELLY: All right. Senator Luedtke, I was relying not on the legalees but upon the statements of Senator DeCamp that he was inserting the District Court as it affected lump sum payments.
